

Year 4 Artwork

This artwork was inspired by our rainforest topic. The children looked at examples of animals and clay models, and thought about how to recreate a their own realistic model. They looked at the basic form of animals, and created their own sketches and experimented with different angles of the animal and the shapes needed. They combined these two skills to create their final piece of art work.

